

Machen Florida Opportunity Scholars

F L O R I D A F I R S T . G A T O R S F O R E V E R .

Jean Rodriguez: now a criminal justice graduate

WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

Program alumni are teachers, police officers, nurses, lawyers, engineers, accountants and other professionals. Some are at organizations such as Amazon, General Electric, ESPN and Teach for America. Others are in graduate programs at UF, Stanford, Harvard, Northwestern and other top academic institutions.

GIVING BACK

Opportunity Scholars give back to UF and their communities. They are Student Government leaders, Cicerones, peer mentors, campus and community volunteers and much more.

1,596

Opportunity Scholars who are now proud UF graduates

300

Opportunity Scholarships for each freshman class

$18,292

Average family income

$9,229

Average annual cost for each scholarship

62

of Florida's 67 counties that are home to Opportunity Scholars

0

Parents of scholars with college degrees

=

Academic achievements compared with UF peers

241

Former Opportunity Scholars who have earned a UF master's degree or are currently enrolled in graduate school

22

Former Opportunity Scholars who are attending or have graduated from UF's law and medical schools